

Canon Law for Priests and Religious

Nav Sadhana, P.O. Shivpur, Varanasi – 221003, U.P.

Jan. 19 – 21, 2018

In his Apostolic Constitution Sacrae disciplinae leges by which John Paul II promulgated the Code of Canon Law the pope takes up this characterization of the Church as a visible society:

In actual fact the Code of Canon Law is extremely necessary for the Church. Since, indeed, it is organized as a social and visible structure, it must also have norms: in order that the exercise of the functions divinely to her, especially that of sacred power; in order, that common initiatives, undertaken for a Christian life ever more perfect may be sustained, strengthened and fostered by canonical norms.

Canon law is not just about an external compliance of rules. The ideal is that the faithful reflect about the norms that exist in Church, that they recognize their importance in order to be more faithful to the mission of Jesus Christ. Rules that made sense in one context were sometimes mistakenly applied in other contexts. Norms that worked at one time in history might be misapplied in other historical periods. Well then, to correct similar distortions, to dispel prejudices, to remove ambiguities and misunderstandings, the true nature of canon law and of ecclesiastical legislation must be made crystal-clear. Hence the urgent need, to further the study of canon law.

With this intention in mind this course will be dealing with the Canonical, Pastoral, Moral and Liturgical issues; Canonical matters on Priestly and Religious life; and all that which is of practical importance for the priests and religious in their daily life, in the exercise of their sacred duties.
